O. B. SMITH,
Paw Paw, Mich.

The Undertaker of Holly, Orleans county, N. Y., stated to me after he had opened the Casket containing the remains of my mother, after being transported from here, that the Undertaker at Paw Paw, Mich., had prepared them in the most skillful and approved manner; that they were in a perfect state of preservation, and everything in as good condition as though the work had just been performed. That of all the numerous bodies received in charge by him, he never saw one where every requisite had been more faithfully attended to. Mrs. F. C. THOMAS.

for Aberdeen, Dak. yesterday morning.

It is feared that the freeze of Tuesday night finished the peach crop and small fruits.

Mrs. Calvin Hall was called to Albion, N.
Y., last Monday by the death of her mother.

Will Snow's wife has left him. She took the babies with her and went to Lima, Ohio, to visit friends.

The lightning rod men got a little job at the school house, repairing broken and dilapidated rods.

Conner & Wood must be doing a slashing business. They have taken up nearly all outdoors to store his agricultural implements.

No charge for this puff like.

Dr. Reables, of Decatur, made the Non-THENER a pleasant visit a day or two since.
Call again, Doctor.

F. M. Manning, Esq., of Albion, has been in town for a short time looking after business matters and calling on old friends.

Married, on Wednesday, May 24th, at the First Baptist church in Paw Paw, by Rev.
Jas. Goodman, Milton Pugsley and Jennie Cash.

Winter, the old scoundrel, has lingered in the lap of Spring, until she is about played out. He may have a set-to with young Summer yet.

'Gene Moon and his brother made the NORTHERNER a pleasant call on Friday last.
'Gene is connected with the Carthage Gazette, in Illinois.

The vocal music for Decoration Day will be furnished by a double male quartette, under the leadership of Chas. E. Hutchins, Esq., and will be good.

Fred writes it Prof. F. D. Jacobs' now.
All right, he understands his business and those who secure him to conduct musical conventions will get a good conductor.

The building of new side-walks in our town still continues. They are getting altogether too numerous to mention. Let there be no cessation until all the old walks are replaced with new.

Summerfield Ford, formerly of this village, and a Miss Hattie Anderson of Ann Arbor, were married on Tuesday of last week. Here is our "Sunny." We wish you and Mrs. F. much joy.

Definite propositions have been submitted by Supt. Ihling to both Hartford and Bangor, for the narrow gauge. Hartford had first choice and failed to respond. Whether Bangor will do as well, remains to be seen.

Frank Van Dyke says they tried to get him to vote the greenback ticket at the last village election, by telling him if the green-backers were elected he would not have so much tax to pay, and now they have doubled upon him.

A meeting of the School Board was held last Saturday evening, at which it was determined to make no change in the salaries of the Principal or teacher in the Grammar School. No action was taken in reference to the lower grades.

Several comrades from this village went to Marcellus to assist in organizing a Post of the G. A. R. at that place on Friday evening last. A Post was started there with thirty-nine members, H. J. Kellogg, Commander.

Our boys met with a little mishap on their road home, but that is nobody's business.

Died, on Friday morning, May 19th, at her residence in Paw Paw township, Mrs.
Phoebe Cummings, wife of Chas. Cummings, at the age of 75 years. Her death occurred on the 28th anniversary of the first arrival of herself and family in this township. Her last illness extended over a period of about ten days. The deceased was highly respected in this community and leaves a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

On Saturday morning last Mr. R. E. Quick missed a valuable mare from his pasture.
The supposition was that she had been stolen, and Mr. Quick took immediate steps for her recovery, offering a reward for the capture of the thief and also for the return of the mare. The animal was found loose in the road a few miles from town, and it is uncertain whether she was stolen or whether she escaped from the lot in some other manner.

Died, at Brooklyn, N. Y., Monday morning, May 15th, in his 33d year, Alexander D.
Mackellar, formerly of this village, brother of our townsman, William C. Mackellar. The deceased was well known in this community and highly respected by all. He was ill but three days, having been up to that time in the enjoyment of his usual health. It was but a little more than two years ago that he met with an accident which rendered necessary the amputation of one leg, and from the effects of which he came near dying. The cause of his death was erysipelas in the remaining part of his amputated limb.

Our friends will confer a great favor on us, and save our waste basket from filling up so rapidly, if they will refrain from sending us so-called poetry for publication. We have no time to examine, no space to devote to such material, and no inclination to publish the same. Especially do we dislike what is commonly termed "Obituary Poetry." No doubt the appearance of such trash in print may be agreeable to the writers, but it is of little or no interest to any one else, and we cannot afford to use our columns for its publication and do not desire to impose upon our readers by offering them any such nonsense, as newspapers generally receive, under the guise of poetry, most of which is neither rhyme nor reason.

Amateurs at the Opera House, this (Friday) evening. Go and hear them, you ought to treat home entertainments as well as you would a lot of traveling mountebanks.

The post-office will be open on Tuesday, May 29th, (Decoration Day) from 7 a. m. to 10 a. m., and from 3 p. m. to 6 p. m. All day mails close at 10 a. m., and evening mails at 6 p. m.

All the business men of this village will close their respective places of business on Decoration Day, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. The school will also close.
This is as it should be.

A grand field trial of Agricultural implements, under the auspices of the West Michigan Farmers Club, will be held on the farm of M. L. Sweet, near the D. G. H. & M. R. R. depot at Grand Rapids on June 6th, 1882.

Rev. James Goodman will preach in the Free-will Baptist church on Sunday morning, and in the evening at the First Baptist church. Morning subject, "Daniel;" evening subject, "The Realm of Imagination in Religion."

The following ladies have been appointed to act as table committee, at Town Hall, on Decoration Day: Mrs. B. F. Heckert, Mrs.
S. W. Duncombe, Mrs. H. W. McCabe, Mrs.
F. E. Stevens, Mrs. O. W. Rowland, Mrs. C.
A. Harrison, Mrs. M. U. Richardson.

Rev. Theodore Brooks, formerly pastor of the Christian church of this village, now residing near Troy, N. Y., and his wife have been visiting their many friends here. The elder preached one of his inimitable discourses at that church on Sunday evening last. Few people have a greater number of warm friends here than the elder and his wife.

Our readers will remember that about two years since, the post-office in this village was burglarized, and Mr. Matthews' safe was blown open and its contents amounting to about $1000, abstracted. One day last week, Mr. J. E. Marshall, while repairing fences, on the farm of C. W. Young, Esq., along the line of the railroad track, just west of the Ball swamp, discovered a package laying under a brush-heap, and an investigation brought to light the entire stolen contents of the safe, excepting, of course, the money and the stamps. Most of the papers were still in a legible condition. The burglars evidently went up the track with their plunder, and when they reached a convenient spot, examined their booty, and taking that which was valuable, secreted the remainder, where it lay until discovered by Mr. Marshall.

The scoundrel who burglarized the store of Kinney, Adams & Co., at Lawton, a short time since, was "gobbed" by an officer at Niles, and a large portion of the stolen property found in his possession. He gives his name as John Curtiss, and hails from Chicago. On Monday last he was arraigned before Esq. Galligan, and there acknowledged his guilt. His bail was fixed at $500, which of course he was unable to give. As Officer McCabe was returning him to jail he attempted to escape by trying his speed and came near being successful. McCabe sent three shots from his revolver in pursuit of the fugitive, one of which passed through one of his pants legs, but he failed to halt. A large crowd was soon in pursuit, and after nearly reaching the timber back of the Paw Paw Mills he was over-hauled by Joe Carroll and recaptured and now lies in the cooler awaiting further developments.

The following is the programme of exercises for Decoration Day in this village, on Tuesday next:

Comrades of Broadhead Post, G. A. R., will assemble at their Post room at 9 a. m., where details will be made to visit the Bangs, North, Clapp and Catholic cemeteries, and decorate the soldiers graves at each of those places. At 10:30 a. m. the Post will fall in and march from their hall to Prospect Hill, where the decoration ceremonies will be held, after which they will march back to the Post-room and partake of refreshments.
At 1:30 p. m. the members of the Post will march to the Court House where public exercises will be held as follows:

1. Music—Martial Band
2. Prayer—Rev. Geo. L. Cole.
3. Music—Glee Club.
4. Oration—Comrade O. W. Rowland.
5. Music—Glee Club.
6. Remarks—Comrades and Citizens.
7. Music—Glee Club.
8. Benediction—Rev. H. W. Harvey.

A general invitation is extended to every one to be present at all the public exercises.
All who are interested, and especially the ladies, are earnestly requested to assist in providing the necessary flowers for the occasion which should be left at the store of comrades Matthews and Hulbert early on Tuesday morning, not later than 9 o'clock.
The refreshments at the hall for the Post, will be provided by the families of the comrades.
